TEN YEARS AND COUNTING LAW SCHOOL FOR THE PUBLIC FEATURES REAL TOPICS ON ISSUES THAT AFFECT RESIDENTS

(Rockville, MD) – Local public access program LAW SCHOOL FOR THE PUBLIC brings insight about real topics, real stories and real people. Celebrating its 10th season this week, a tremendous accomplishment in public access television, this talk show helps residents of Montgomery County become familiar with laws and the court system.

Produced by James Klimaski of Silver Spring, LAW SCHOOL FOR THE PUBLIC airs Tuesdays at 8:00 PM and Fridays at 3:30 PM on Access Montgomery TV 21.

Every week residents have the opportunity to hear legal professionals discuss compelling topics of interest. Topics include the rise in housing foreclosures, immigration issues, both legal and illegal, how to deal with traffic offenses, and how to protect you in home remodeling projects.

“We are not there to provide a comprehensive understanding of each topic but we want to acquaint the audience with what they need to look out for and understand,” said James Klimaski, volunteer producer for the series.

“Ten years is a great achievement in local community programming. LAW SCHOOL FOR THE PUBLIC has enriched AMTV’s program line-up and is a testament to the volunteers, producers and technicians that have given countless hours in community programming for Montgomery County,” said, Richard Turner, Executive Director, Montgomery Community Television, Inc.

LAW SCHOOL FOR THE PUBLIC is sponsored by the Montgomery County Bar Foundation.

Access Montgomery, a service of Montgomery Community Television, Inc., is the county's only independent, nonprofit organization dedicated to providing residents with diverse programming, television production, and training resources. Access Montgomery has successfully educated, informed, and entertained county viewers for over 20 years, training more than 4,000 county residents in its television production workshops. Access Montgomery operates two cable channels, Access Montgomery TV 19 and Access Montgomery TV 21. For more information about Access Montgomery, visit www.accessmontgomery.tv.
